Draga Jelena

evo izvjestaj,

After the Court of Appeals wrongly refused to allow the parts of the appeal not stayed by the bankruptcy court to proceed, we have prepared a motion asking the bankruptcy court to direct us to proceed with the unstayed parts of the appeal. This is what the bankruptcy court ordered in our chapter 15 petition and our present motion in the bankruptcy court asks the bankruptcy court to clarify its order that the trustee, Jelena, must be allowed by the Court of Appeals to proceed with the unstayed parts of the appeal, thereby allowing collection of assets of the estate.

The bankruptcy court should decide our motion in January, and then we will take its new order to the Court of Appeals and ask the Court of Appeals to allow the appeal to continue in accordance with the bankruptcy court order. We expect the Court of Appeals to rule within a few weeks thereafter.

I hope you are all keeping safe and that we will have favorable outcomes for you in the new year. if you have any questions, please feel free to ask.

Carolyn
