Dear Sir,

I am writing to you as the bankruptcy trustee of ALPRO-ATT d.o.o. in bankruptcy (Trogirska cesta 4, Trogir, Croatia). Namely, on October 11, 2022, bankruptcy proceedings were opened for the company ALPRO-ATT d.o.o. By the same Decision, point VII, the debtors of the bankrupt debtor were invited to fulfill their obligations to the bankruptcy trustee for the bankrupt debtor without delay. As it is clear from the business books that your company is a debtor of a bankrupt debtor, I hereby invite you to settle the debt in full, together with default interest. According to the accounting records, the claim against your company amounts to HRK 28.505,12/ 3.783,28 eur, and please make the payment to the bankruptcy debtor's account HR812386002119045423.

If you have already settled the debt, I would like a confirmation of payment.

Greetings

Ivan Vlaić

Dear Mr. Vlaic,

referring to your b. m. email, I wanted to point out why the mentioned amount remained open (invoice 539-02-2 /July 2021/ 3.783,28 eur).

At that time we faced a massive quality claim with goods from the now bankrupt company ALPRO-ATT d.o.o., which had a worth of EUR 10634,00.

Therefore, we held back the payment for the invoice which you declared as unbalanced to force a reaction from ALPRO for resolving the claim.

Unfortunately, we never received any usable reply to this case and so we still sit on a damage of EUR 6850,72.

If you are interested in any email communication we had with the supplier on this claim, it is still on record with us.

So, from our point of view, actually we are the ones to expect a repair payment from ALPRO still.

I'm looking forward to your comment.

Thank you.

Mit freundlichen Grüßen
Best regards

Dear Mr. Thomas,

I spoke with a former employee, mr. Zdravko Rukavina, who explained the development of events to me in more detail. Bankruptcy trustee, does not have the authority to independently decide on legal proceedings that could be initiated against Univolt. I will present this problem at the meeting of creditors, which will be held on January 17, 2023, at the Commercial court in Split, and the creditors will decide how to solve this problem with your company.

Best regards
